

Ed suffered from diabetes and had just been fitted for a new leg after a diabetes-related leg amputation. He suddenly had a stroke and passed away about a week later without regaining consciousness. Kenda Vaughan writes: It is sobering how many of our grads have passed on. I was curious to read about Eddie Rubalcava because he and I went to grade school and on up together. He and I went to Thomas Jefferson Elementary in Burbank.